

tickets.de fair. functional. personal.

We offer you the complete service package: from your own ticket shop to satisfied customers, a trouble-free admission process and the event billing, we will take care of you.

The shop – easy & functional 01

On tickets.de you can open up your own ticket shop that can be individually designed according to your preferences. Set the dates, prices and conditions - and you're done.

If needed, we also offer many additional features like accessing wide-ranging statistic data, a newsletter service and a direct connection to the common social media platforms.

You focus on your event - We will do the rest.

02 The service – personal

To have a trouble free ticketing experience, you will need a partner you can trust. We've been working with event organizers of the larger and smaller variety for years now. The kind of the event is not important.

Every partner will receive extensive and personal support.

The conditions – transparent & fair 03

tickets.de stands for a clear and simple price structure: no additional fees, no hidden costs.

10% commission fee

- individual ticket shop with numerous features
- shop support
- customer service
- supply of admission hardware
- event billing

04 The tickets – personalised

To minimize re-sales for inflated prices, we offer our partners the option of personalised tickets.

Your benefits – at one glance 05

- + increase your independency by managing your own ticket shop
- + save time with the easy and comfortable creation of your events
- + increase your personnel capacity by relying on the broad and individual service of our team
- + enjoy a trouble-free admission process with the help of the tickets.de admission technology
- + have complete control over arising expenses with our transparent cost structure